

MISS RAY FRANK.

SOMETHING OF THE LADY WHO WILL LECTURE THIS EVENING.

Many questions have been asked relative to Miss Frank who is to lecture this evening. She is a Nevada girl who a few years ago taught school in Eureka. She is spending a few weeks in this city as the guest of Governor Jones.

During the past few years she has attained considerable celebrity as a lecturer. The Cincinnati Enquirer publishes the following interview with the lady. It says:

Miss Frank is famous for the recent lectures on art questions, which she delivered before the people of the Pacific Coast shortly prior to her departure for Cincinnati. The reputation of her eloquence and grasp of ideas has spread not only over this country, but across the seas.

"How did you get the idea of working in this field?" asked the reporter of Miss Frank last night.

"I suppose it was the result of a natural predisposition towards the study of the subject. I do not say it in a spirit of self-adulation, but because I wish make myself thoroughly clear, that I have always felt a delight in the study of philosophy and particularly that part of it which might be termed ethical. As a result of such study I came to believe that some things needed remedy, and naturally, being a Jewess, I turned to help my own race if I could. If you mean to ask how I came to lecture, the reason is not far to seek. I taught Sabbath school classes in Oakland for several years and was very successful. The talks which I gave my Bible class for some reason or other began to possess an attraction for the older folks till I found that week after week I was giving my Bible class talk to quite large congregations. For over two years I have lectured, but it is only three years since I began to charge admission to hear me. I was met with audiences whose numbers were very flattering. Public lecturing was no hard task and I never was afflicted with stage fright even from the first. I feel thoroughly at home, and when I lecture can note the expressions of most of the individuals of my audience.

The following clippings from various exchanges are published in addition.

Examiner, San Francisco:—Miss Frank talked to a large audience last evening as easily, fluently and earnestly as she would have talked to a half-dozen intimate friends in her own parlors. She has a pleasing and interesting personality.

San Francisco Call.—She plunged into her subject and handled it in a masterly manner, eliciting frequent expressions of approval.

Evening News, San Jose.—Miss Frank's lectures in San Francisco have been largely attended and have received the cordial endorsement of the press.

Los Angeles Express.—Undoubtedly Miss Frank is a great genius and she appears to be inspired.

How Exasperating.

As a rule, most people are intensely exasperated when, after wading through some exciting story in the newspaper, which they have devoured with breathless interest, to find at the finish it is only a trap to advertise some wonderful soap or patent medicine. Of course it is disappointing, but just consider how cleverly it is done, and by the way, what a wonderful industry has developed in this mode of advertising. Some of the great medicine firms pay their advertising agent as high as ten thousand dollars a year, and a certain manufacturer of soap pays his advertiser twenty-five thousand dollars. Just think of it and while you are thinking just remember that Jollie Nelly McHenry and her company of artists will present her latest success, "A Night at the Circus," to you shortly.

The Gardner case was argued before the Supreme Court yesterday on writ of habeas corpus and was taken under advisement.

The admission to Miss Frank's lecture this evening will be 50 cents.

EVENING SESSION.

There was a large audience in the House last evening to see the termination of the County Segregation fight.

Beck of Washoe County made another long speech against the bill, but it was rambling and disjointed and much of it was abusive and personal, the abuse being lugged on to cover the weak points in his argument.

Noel in a calm and deliberate speech riddled the argument by his appeal to facts and figures which could not be refuted.

He pointed out the large amount of money which annually flowed into the County of Washoe from the State Treasury to support its public institutions. He told of the times when Storey while asking nothing of the State had paid billion taxes on two hundred and fifty million dollars, and had saved the State from bankruptcy. Now in her dark hour she asks for an equalization of territorial area to help her through. It was just and right and endorsed by all fair thinking men of the State. Many of Beck's statements he refuted by the plainest showing of facts and figures. The State of Nevada owed Storey much and the recognition he asked for was in the name of justice.

It was idle for the Washoe speaker to hurl the epithets of thieves and robbers at everybody. When he touched on the $2 tax in Washoe, and the $5 tax in Storey, he said that the Washoe people were only being taxed on half their valuation, and were defrauding the State, while crying robber and thief at everybody else. At this center shot there was a tumult of applause in the House. Several times Mr. Noel was interrupted by applause, and he made a chopping block of the other side. He was frequently interrupted by questions, all of which he answered instantly and never lost a trick. In some of the play between Allen of Eureka, and Noel, both sides were liberally applauded.

The House refused to reconsider the vote by which the bill was passed by a vote of 18 to 12.
